August 13, 1927 - August 17, 2017

Grace C. Wilson, age 90, went home to be with her Lord on August 17, 2017 surrounded by family in Caledonia, MI. Grace was born in Belmont, MA., the first of Giovanni "John" and Caterina (Repici) Santoro's four children. She met her husband Jack of Woodcock, PA in Boston when he was serving in the Navy. After marriage they lived in Belmont for a short time before moving to Fort Lauderdale where they resided until retiring to the Ocklawaha area. She will be remembered for her unconditional love, her gentle spirit, her forgiving nature, her inner strength, her unwavering faith, her immaculate housekeeping, and her world class chocolate chip cookies. She was preceded in death by her husband in 2009, sisters Mary "Mae" Stickley and Catherine "Cathy" Bradford, and nephew John "JC" Hendrix. Grace is survived by her sister Concetta "Connie" Jones (Fenton, MI), brother-in-law Russell Wilson (Cambridge Springs, PA), and nieces and nephews that adored her. A private committal service will be held at Good Shepherd Memorial Gardens in Ocala on August 23, 2017. Arrangements are being handled by Stroo Funeral Home, Grand Rapids, MI., and Roberts Funeral Home, Ocala, FL. Contributions in honor of her memory may be made to The Lewy Body Dementia Association.

“ August 17th the Lord took another angel home. Aunt Grace was more than an Aunt, she was a second mom. She touched many hearts by her strong faith, unconditional love, kindness, grace, willingness to go with the flow, chocolate chip cookies and sharing her recipes. God's Blessing upon her. May she rest in peace. May the road rise up to meet you, May the wind be always at your back. May the sun shine warm upon your face; the rains fall soft upon your fields and until we meet again, may God hold you in the palm of His hand.

“ While we only had the privilege of meeting Aunt Grace one time, the stories we've heard and the devotion of her loving niece Donna and her husband Mike made us feel like we knew her. She touched lives she didn't even know with her sweetness. She will be remembered with love. May she rest in peace.
