

Hazeleigh Jacqueline Teeling

June 10, 2022 - March 3, 2024

Our sweet innocent Babygirl

Hazeleigh Jacqueline Teeling aka Mommy's mini, me mouse, bumble bee, or last but not least, 'Daddy's Other Chick', 21 months old passed away unexpectedly at 20620 SE 140th St. Umatilla FL 32784 on 03-02-2024 in her sleep & pronounced deceased the early evening of 03-03-24 at an unknown time exactly with the cause of death being respiratory infection with multiple viruses detected (5 to be exact) & contributing cause of death being congenital hypothyroidism with failure to thrive.

Hazeleigh is preceded in death by her Great Grandpa Harvey Jack Lorah from her moms side along with her Great Aunt Chris Branch, her Great-Great Grandparents Laura Jones & Leon Root and Candice (Candy) Vernon who was her Great Aunt all on moms side of the family.

Hazeleigh is lovingly remembered by her mother Laura Corbin-Teeling and father Zackery Sebastian Teeling, along with her 4 older brothers starting with Harvey Jack Corbin, Hunter James Teeling, Henry John Teeling and Harley Jayce Teeling & her big sister Krista Morrow. Along with many other family members (sorry if I missed any) starting with her grandparents Jennifer & Steven Thatcher and Shane & Christy Deaton from moms side then Michelle & Derk Rhyerd & Kenneth Teeling from Daddy's side with adopted grandparents too. Her Great grandparents Jacqueline McClure from moms side then from dads side Cynthia & Thomas Johnson. She had many aunts and uncles some of which gave her cousins starting with moms side being Aunt Brittany & Uncle Michael Fleming with cousin Corbin Fleming, Aunt Eileen Corbin, Great Uncle James Vernon with cousins Grayce & Jack Vernon, followed by dads side Uncle Jayson Teeling with cousin Tanner Teeling, Uncle Brendon Teeling & Aunt Kristina Teeling with a couple cousins, Aunt Sydney Lavoy & Uncle Tyler Allman and lastly her Great Great cousins Danny Young & Derek Nicarry both from moms side.

Hazeleigh Jacqueline Teeling was born June 10th 2022 in Leesburg FL and sent home with her mommy & Daddy to finally meet her 5 older siblings who were home excited from the coming home call & waiting with open arms beyond excited full of joy to meet the little girl they loved & cared for so dearly without yet meeting her outside mommy's belly yet. Sadly her life was short lived but she is now no longer suffering from her medical issues or the lack of from others beside her mommy nor is she having to take anymore nasty meds she was being forced to take to keep her alive but instead she is now pain free, dancing in the sky. It completely breaks her Mommy's heart that she didn't get to grow up and experience all that life has to offer, much less go to school activities or dances, compete in sports or see what career she chose to go into in her later life! Mommy's lil girl is missed dearly.

Hazeleigh enjoyed a long list of things such as going on walks with mommy, siblings & Daddy along with the family dogs and sometimes one of the cats too! She enjoyed spending time with her brothers playing with toys or watching movies & Lord, nothing could take her attention from it either! Her family time couldn't be disturbed for anything unless it was time to go with mommy and watch the sunrise or sunset with Daddy joining occasionally too. She always made sure to be awake for sunrise & sunset time when she was with mommy and daddy, sometimes she'd even go back to sleep after sunrise! She definitely enjoyed family time the most because in her eyes nothing was or could ever be better than mommy, 4 brothers, & daddy being together all snuggled up! She was just like her momma and enjoyed all animals except for birds & insects and would freak out if one was around her and she saw it. She loved a lot of different things but also hated some things too such as birds, insects, loud noises like screaming, fireworks, sirens, gunshots, etc... and would turn to become a Hazeleigh nobody truly knew. While lil ole Hazeleigh loved being her Mommy's lil girl don't get it twisted cause she loved getting dirty with the boys too! She loved when mommy's side of the family got together on the weekends having cookouts, watching the races or her teams (FSU, Greenbay, Giants, & Steelers) play football too!

Hazeleigh Jacqueline Teeling gave mommy & daddy their 1st heart attack the day of the gender sonogram even though Daddy wasn't paying attention and said mommy was joking when she told him "it's a girl!" They were excited to add a girl to the group and finally have a girl at home to protect. Harvey Corbin (oldest brother) was just so excited and full of joy to finally have a sister in the mix as his little brothers always wanted his toys no matter what they were old or new (being typical siblings) and his older sister was always at her dads but it was also one of Harvey's biggest dreams to have a baby sister so bad that at his 3 younger brothers sonogram he cried after the doctor and nurse saying, "it's a boy" he absolutely adored her and misses her immensely! Lil Hazeleigh also made a huge impact on her Grandma Jennifer's life finally making her a proud Grandma of her first blood granddaughter as of 2022 and only blood granddaughter out of 6 grandchildren in 2024 though Jennifer loves her granddaughter Krista too as if she was her own blood. It is safe to say lil miss Hazeleigh shocked everyone on mommy's side that mommy and daddy were finally having a girl together. Lord how she is missed dearly and daily by mommy and a bunch of others.

Hazeleigh Jacqueline was not only Mommy's mini me and only girl coming from mommy and daddy but was also her 4 brothers pride and joy as well as her big sister Krista's 'lil sunflower'. She was absolutely the true life of the party no matter what or where she was and a true gift from God! She was all around perfect in every way possible and touched the souls of everyone she encountered and crossed paths within her sadly unfortunate short lifetime she did get to live. While everyone wishes she'd have had much more time alive being able to grow up and make more memories with family and friends growing up and having the opportunity of learning a bunch of more new things to simply add onto what she already knew. Her favorite thing she learned was how to snag people's souls and steal hearts left and right. She knew exactly how to turn anyone's bad days good with just a simple smile as she had a one and only kind of smile. She would take the worst mood ever and give it a 180 degree turn around. She was also learning how to speak clear words, walk without having to hold on to something or someone and stand alone without falling over, as well as feeding herself actual food not just baby food or finger foods. We all believe her favorite thing to learn was what new face she could make to get someone to smile while they were having a rough or bad day. She was such a sweet and loving little girl who loved everyone and even more if they bought her anything to do with Minnie Mouse or sunflowers. and she was not picky at all when it came down to what it was, toys, clothes, pictures, even bedding, if it was Minnie Mouse or sunflowers, she was happy.

It is beyond sad and heartbreaking that Lil Ole Me Mouse's time alive was cut short so she didn't get to experience all life's got to offer nor have the opportunity to continue to learn new things or more about what she knew already or was working on learning but also being able to grow up and be able to be a child and feel the love every child should from their family much less be able to make more unforgettable memories with her mommy, siblings and others who loved her unconditionally for her not for anything less nor anything more. The worst part of it all our sweet precious baby girl did not have enough time to be able to do more of what she seemed to love doing the most and what the world lacks so much and truly needs more of and that is to show true happiness by simply spreading more care and compassion along with true 100% genuine love really is and feels like. She would have been in the Worlds Record Book for the greatest and biggest blessing of a teacher on showing people how to show true love and compassion and what it truly feels like to receive it as that is all she knew how to do. We all know the world needs more of it.

Needless to say, anyone who met Hazeleigh Jacqueline will forever be remembered by her bubbly personality that is nothing shy of a perfect human all around with the most innocent and purely sweet self with the greatest personality that left her pure happy through any obstacles life's storm threw at her or in her way. She'd take any bad situation and laugh it off smiling the whole time asking "is that all you got?" Her endless smiles melted any and everyone's hearts she encountered or crossed paths with! She is & will always be forever loved, cared about, very well missed.

Anyone and everyone who got the pleasure of meeting 'Lil Miss Sweetness' knew she loved her mommy, 4 brothers, daddy, older sissy Krista as well as her Grandma Jennifer. Everyone also knew she was also her momma's life saver and truly her greatest blessing in a bad time of desperate need.

Amongst all the good for her momma she also made a large impact on so many other people's lives touching souls and instantly snagging hearts of those around. There was not a single soul who didn't fall in love with her contagious smile with her pretty blue eyes which sparkled like diamonds in the sunlight. It was really quite a blessing to be gifted with her from Heaven above for the short amount of her life shared on Earth with us. We absolutely adored her and her sweet beyond loving and caring way of life no matter what the situation was. WE LOVE AND MISS YOU HAZELEIGH JACQUELINE TEELING SO VERY MUCH!

Mommy's mini, me mouse or Daddy's Other Chick aka Hazeleigh Jacqueline Teeling, your mommy, 4 older brothers, 1 older sister, Daddy and many others will forever miss you sweet girl! Your beautiful smile followed by your adorable little laugh that brought laughter to anybody in any room will never be able to be replaced or forgotten at all. The spots in the hearts you took of others will forever remain yours baby girl, I promise that much at least forever your Mommy's whole heart and always will no matter what. Your mommy can not wait to be reunited with you again when it is her time to go to Heaven but until then rest easy and save seats. Messages from Hazeleighs mommy, daddy, siblings, and Grandma Jennifer to her are listed below to share if wanted.

 Messages for Hazeleigh from family listed above:

- ~Mommy: I miss you bunches baby girl and love you beyond measures forever and always. My heart is completely torn and shattered without you but I just know for sure when we are finally reunited with each other that the endless cuddles that will be full of that precious smile and sweet laughter will all be worth the wait. Just know there's going to be a lot to make up for all the unfortunate lost time and memories we didn't get the pleasure to have together since your time was cut short. You didn't get to have the experience of making more unforgettable memories, unconditional love or even endless cuddles we could of and would have had or get to grow up and goof off together dancing around or even sing if we wanted to and be able to see what life even had in store for you baby girl. Mommy just wants you to know that she loves and misses you more than you could ever imagine much less believe and also that living life without you in it is the hardest thing ever to deal with. Well I'm wrapping my message up, don't need to drag the obituary out longer, so rest easy princess and just know and remember I love and miss you dearly and can't wait for your loving cuddles that are far beyond needed and lovely smiles with laughter following that will just give us both happy tears to wipe for each other. Please don't forget mommy enjoyed every last minute and second I got with you my sweet mini me! Well xoxo baby girl and rest easy up in Heaven having nothing shy of peace and joy and happiness! I love you Princess. Xoxo love your mommy.

- ~Older Sissy: Hey sissy I just wanted to remind you and tell you again how much you mean to me so I will start here, you will always be my little girl, my baby sister and still my lifelong sunflower. You were so full of smiles, just the happiest and sweetest precious little girl and I miss you terribly but I know we will meet again soon, I just wish your time was longer with us. Big sissy loves and misses you so much baby girl. Rest in peace. Love your big sissy. I love you my lil sunflower!

- ~Oldest brother (Harvey): Sissy, I miss you so much. I love you a ton and I just want you to know that I will never forget you. I was so happy the day I found out mommy was having a girl as I always wanted a baby sister to love and protect plus mommy and daddy kept giving me brothers who always want to play with my toys. Oh man how much I wish you'd just come back so I could hold you longer, give you more lovins, make more memories together.

Mommy doubts she will ever have another kid but if it were to happen and the baby was a girl then I think mommy would go crazy and wouldn't be able to handle it because she misses her lil mini me and it hurts her out in public to see a little girl without crying. Mommy's going through it without you sissy. Just know and always remember that nobody will ever replace you! You are a one in a lifetime kind of person and a rare gift from God for sure. Sissy, I cry a lot at the thought of not having you with us anymore. Well I love you so much and miss you a ton sissy. Rest easy up there sissy and save me a seat.

- ~2nd older brother Hunter: Sissy, I love and miss you. You will forever be my me mouse. I enjoyed feeding you when mommy and daddy allowed it while you were a baby. I always fought daddy about feeding you when he told me no. It was one of my favorite things to do, but holding you was the first. I miss you, kick back, relax, and enjoy Heaven.

- ~3rd older brother Henry: Meme look down on us forever and keep us safe. Since we can't have you on Earth with us, at least we got you in Heaven as our guardian angel and we sure do have the best one ever. I miss you a bunch.

- ~4th older brother Harley: Sissy, sissy look truck truck sissy truck, do you see it up in Heaven? I miss you so much, I love you dearly. Playing with dump trucks and those beaded necklaces you loved so much won't ever be looked at or even as fun as it was with you by my side. I love and miss you sissy. Rest easy.

- ~Grandma & Grandpa Steven (moms mom & moms mothers husband): Hazeleigh Jacqueline, we love and miss you so very much! You were our precious little granddaughter and the only granddaughter (from Grandma Jennifer's side of the family) and you had the most beautiful smile ever. Grandma just wishes she could hug you and tell you how very much you're loved. Small but mighty you were. Gods definitely got the most beautiful and happiest lil angel with Him now! We will forever love and miss you. Until we meet again, our little princess, we steadily send you big ole bear hugs and nonstop butterfly kisses! Xoxo rest in peace and easy, save us seats!

- ~Aunt Brittany, Uncle Michael, & Cousin Corbin: Our sweet baby niece, you will forever be in our hearts. Your cousin Corbin would have loved to grow up with you. You'll forever be missed dearly. May you rest easy and peacefully sweet girl! We love you!

- ~Aunt Eileen: My precious lil niece, even though I only met you once and the time was very short, it was all the time I needed to fall in love with such a precious lil girl like you! The short time was very memorable, I love and miss you sweet girl! I can't wait to see you again one-day whenever my time is. Please save me a seat next to you. Xoxo rest in peace my sweet niece.

We will forever miss your beautiful bright smiling lil self full of love and laughter, along with so much more! Mommy, Daddy, and your siblings on top of many others love and miss you so dang much! It is still so hard to believe that you're actually gone, but now you are Heaven's most beautiful Angel and cheerleader! We all just wish your time on Earth was so much longer so we could have held you more, given you more kisses, and made so much more unforgettable memories. Rest easy sweet girl. It is never goodbye, it is see you later!

Attached Below Is A Sweet Poem For Our Sweet Angel

Dear God, Please Take Care Of My Little Girl:

Written by Laura Corbin-Teeling

Dear God, please take care of my little girl.

The one with big ole eyes and soft brown hair.

She was so very special, as you should know.
And trust me, Mommy didn't want to let her go!

She touched the hearts of any and everyone she could.
Letting her go was so beyond hard to do!
Her bright little smile... oh Lord, could brighten anyone's dark days, that's for sure.
I wish you didn't take her so soon, at least not before me as this pain is unbearable.

If you could, when you're not busy, do you think you could sit and rock her for me as you read a story ...
My poor baby girl, I'm sure she's scared without me and daddy. We've never had to be this far from her...
Please tell our precious little one not to worry and that I'm sure I won't be long.

She absolutely loves to sing all sorts of different songs, but mainly stay away from curse words as she will always be our beautiful bright young lady.
Please tell my innocent baby that she did nothing wrong, not ever in her life, the little short one she had...
Let her know she was nothing shy of the most perfect little human ever and an absolute Godsend, she was the gift that blessed many lives.

Since mommy can't be there right now but maybe soon, do you think you could please comfort her in your arms?
If she's not in your arms, could you please make sure she's in Grandpa Harvey Lorah's arms please?
Also could you possibly tell her that she is very much loved and missed by mommy amongst many others also, day and night?
Let Mommy's mini me know it is not easy nor is it the same without her here and we are all devastated that she is gone!

Please tell her she is so loved by many, but mainly her mommy and daddy with her 5 siblings too.

I'll shout out everyday to let her know for her to hear how much we love and miss her here!

Her very short life on Earth, which saddens mommy, siblings (4 big brothers and 1 sister), daddy, and many others is now completed as unfortunate as it is.

And I'm sure you took her Home with you for whatever reason that I'm sure you thought I needed!

But please God, make sure you tell her daily as much as you can that mommy promises to see her again soon one-day.

If only I knew when, I would tell her, but only You know as you call the shots of life and death!

I hope and pray everyday you call me Home soon so I can fulfill the promises I made to her of endless love, cuddles, and protection, and make up for lost times.

Let her know mommy cant wait to hold her, hug and kiss her, comfort and protect her, make more memories with her and finally dance together with her at least since we didn't get to before going Home.

Dear Lord, please let her know everything I said & that everything will be okay. Mommy loves you Hazeleigh Jacqueline Teeling. Xoxo princess. Rest easy my sweet lil mini me and know mommy will be there soon princess. Just save me a seat next to you!

“ Baby Sissy, My Lil Sunflower ... I love and miss you so much!! You cheered me up on my bad days and made my good days even better!! No words can describe the pain I felt when I heard you were gone! I remember the first day I met you, you were just all smiles and laughs the entire time! I will never forget you Baby Sissy. I have a piece of you in my teddy bear necklace that I wear anywhere and everywhere I go, so you're always with me. I love you My Lil Sunflower! Rest easy baby girl.
