

Heidi Marie Cagle

January 24, 1964 - October 28, 2023

Heidi Marie Cagle, 59, of Ocala, FL, passed away on 10/28/2023 in Ocala, FL.

Heidi was born in Wichita Falls, TX to Nancy and Jack Dukes on January 24th, 1964. She went to high school at Leto High School and graduated in 1982. She went on to earn a Veterinary Technician degree at Marion Technical Institute. She worked as a vet tech at Banfield for many years and touched so many lives, from pets and their families to the work family she adopted. Heidi enjoyed helping animals and would frequently bring home one in need of extra love. She would also be found participating in any craft she discovered.

Heidi is survived by her husband, Richard Cagle, her children, Deryk Cagle and Courtney Willoughby, her son-in-law, Christopher Willoughby, and her grandchildren, Elijah and Lincoln Willoughby. She is also survived by her brothers Michael and Robert Dukes.

The funeral service will include a burial at sea off the coast of the Bahamas to celebrate Heidi's love of the ocean and travel. No visitation will be held at this time but others are encouraged to celebrate Heidi's life in their own personal way.

Memorial Donations may be made to any organization that helps animals in need.
