In Loving Memory of Helen "Kay" McLean

On this solemn day, we gather to honor the remarkable life of Helen "Kay" affectionately known as "Nanny" to her loved ones. Born on June 20th, 1950, she graced this world with her vibrant presence and left a significant mark on the hearts of all who knew her. Today, we bid the dearest farewell to a beloved mother, grandmother, and devoted wife.

Kay found joy in life's simple pleasures. She spent her best days travelling to visit family, searching for thrifted treasures and waiting for the fish to bite. She gave the same comfort to her family as to those in need and never hesitated to lend a hand. She was everyone's favorite cook and her love could be felt in the dishes she prepared.

Kay cherished her family with a boundless love and unwavering dedication. To her grandchildren, she was more than a grandmother; she was "Nanny," a beacon of warmth and wisdom who showered them with endless affection and guidance. Her love has gracefully extended through several generations, touching the hearts of her children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren. Her enthusiasm was matched only by her fearlessness. In times of trial, Kay stood as the backbone of her family, offering unwavering support and strength. Her presence illuminated the darkest of days, and her laughter echoed through our hearts as a constant reminder of the joy she brought into our lives. Her family was truly her greatest treasure and she never lost passion in making sure they felt loved.

Though Kay may have departed from this world on May 15th, 2024, her spirit lives on in the countless memories, the lessons she imparted, and the love she so generously gave. As we bid farewell to a remarkable woman, let us take solace in knowing that her love has and will endure for generations to come.

Rest in peace, Nanny. We love you.
