

Helene Kuehn

May 27, 1930 - August 14, 2023

Helene Mina (née Mueller) Kuehn of Hendersonville, NC, went home to meet her Lord and Savior on August 14, 2023, at the age of 93. Helene was born in Asperg, Germany, and emigrated to Canada with her husband, Andreas, in 1953. Later, they moved to Ohio and became U.S. citizens. Helene worked in the Cafeterias of Lorain County school system till she retired. Helene enjoyed Bible studies, traveling, German clubs and friends, grandchildren, and line dancing. She was a fabulous cook and baker. Helene was preceded in death by her husband of 45 years, Andreas "Andy" Kuehn, three siblings, Adolf, Hanna, and Maria. She leaves behind two children: Harold Kuehn of New Braunfels, TX, and Karin (Kenneth) Wooten of Hendersonville, NC; five grandchildren: Krista (Joe) Tindall, FL, Kayla (Jesse) Beller, NC, Kyle (Brinkley) Wooten, NC, Mary "Crissy" Kuehn, HI, and Janine Boyette, AK; and seven great grandchildren: Bailey Tindall, Joey Tindall, Amelia Beller, Penelope Beller, Knox Wooten, Nila Wooten, and Finnegan Kuehn. Helene attended First Baptist Church of Hendersonville, NC, and Friendship Baptist Church of Ocala, FL. A private graveside service will be held at Good Shepherd Memorial Gardens.

“ Deeply grateful for the precious memories and moments that come to mind, as you honor your dear mother with a service that celebrates her admirable life and the joy of her faith in our Lord Jesus Christ. It is wonderful to contemplate her heavenly home-going when she finally saw her Savior! We praise Him with you for His merciful gift of eternal life. Our love and prayers continue for traveling mercies and a beautiful service to bring closure to her blessed life. Love, Ann and Patrick Wirtz
