

Hugh G. Hall

November 17, 1941 - December 31, 2025

On December 31, 2025, Hugh Grady Hall passed away, leaving behind a legacy defined by hard work, integrity, and unwavering devotion to his family. He was born on November 17, 1941, in Ashburn, Georgia, and lived life on his own terms until the very end.

Nearly 59 years ago, Hugh founded Action Plumbing Inc., building the company from the ground up through grit, determination, and an uncompromising work ethic. What he created was more than a business—it was a reflection of who he was: honest, tough, dependable, and unwilling to quit. His legacy continues today through the family who proudly carries on the work he began.

A musician at heart, Hugh was rarely far from a guitar or banjo, often with a toothpick tucked casually in his mouth. Music was a constant companion and a quiet expression of his spirit.

Above all else, Hugh loved his family. He was a devoted father to Teresa Heath, Daren Hall, and Kent Hall and a proud grandfather and great-grandfather. His children and their families were the center of his world, and his love for them was steadfast and unmistakable.

Hugh will be remembered as kind, stubborn, steadfast, and unapologetically himself. If he loved you, you knew it and those who knew him were better for it.

He leaves behind a family deeply grateful for the lessons he taught by example and the life he showed them how to live.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made in Hugh's memory to The Salvation Army @ <https://www.salvationarmyusa.org/>.
