August 5, 1970 - November 8, 2013

Obituary of Humberto Moya Our beloved Bert was born in Pahokee, Florida on August 5, 1970. He is preceded in death by his father, Humberto Moya, Sr., his paternal grandparents, Dulce and Zoila Moya; maternal grandparents, Francisco Jose and Maria Luisa Alvarez and a maternal aunt, Reina Alvarez-Rangel. Per Bert's wishes the family has chosen cremation. Bert . . . It is very difficult for all of us, whose life you touched, not to be able to reach out to you with a hug or return your beautiful smile. Our hearts are broken by your absence, and our only consolation lies in knowing that one day we will all be reunited. We love you forever! “ As long as I lived in Carlton Arms Bert has always brought joy to my family and I. My son makes sure he says hi to Bert when he passes by. Every time he fixed something at my apartment my husband and I were always eating breakfast. Then whenever he saw us he'd ask "what's for breakfast?" lol He was great at making everyone around him smile. I'm glad to say I knew him. He will always be missed by the Brooks family!

“ Bert was the best his smile & personality could bring joy into anyone. A man who loved with all his heart and lived life to the fullest. So thankful he became part of our family & passed through our lives because he made it better. When I think of him I will always smile and know what a great love he shared. May God Bless and Comfort All.

“ My thought and prayer are you and your family. Bert was loved by many. Life will break you. Nobody can protect you from it and living alone wont either for solitude will also break you with yearning. You have to feel. Its is the reason you are here on earth. You are here to risk your hart. You are here to be swallowed up. and when it happens that you are broken, or betrayed or left to hurt, or death brushes near, let yourself sit by an apple tree and listen to the apples falling all around you in heaps wasting their sweetness. tell yourself you tasted as many as you could. by louise edrich love steven

“ Every parent knows that the death of a child before the parent is our worse nightmare...that it goes against the order of things...that we should never have to shoulder that all consuming pain in our lifetime. Bert's death came too early...and his family is forever heartbroken. I am so sorry for your loss Estrella, it is such a small sentiment for the agony that you are enduring. May God keep you and hold you, through this tragic time in your life.
