“ Mrs. Phang has impacted so many lives including mine. Her friendly smile and genuine love towards others was known to all. When my parents moved to FL, she made me feel as if I was a part of her family. Now when I close my eyes and think of her, all I see is her smiling face. I miss her dearly.

“ Grandma Ina, You are truly special, you were an angel sent by God to do work here on earth and once your job here was done God felt heaven needed you more! I miss your smile, your phone calls, your hugs, your food, your surprises, I miss everything about you. I know that all the other angels had a party for you when you were called up to Heaven! You will sadly and forever be missed, but your memory and your legacy will live on through us! I LOVE YOU!!! Inga :)

“ Mrs. Phang embraced me like I was one of her daughters. I remember when I had a kidney infection and she brought home remedies for me to try. If she did that for me, I can imagine how many other lives that will not be the same without her. She will truly be missed. My condolences goes out to everyone she left behind.

“ Grandma, was my best friend. Not even words or a song can explain how much I loved her. Just one smile from grandma and my day would turn from bad to good. The thing I will miss is her laugh. Grandma was no ordinary person she was Gods greatest not one of the greatest the greatset creation and Gods #1 ANGEL!!!!!!!!!!!!

“ To the Phang family...too many to name....I love you all, you are all in my prayers and also on my phone list. From the day I met Ina in 1978 I knew she was special, when I relocated to Fla. in 89 she took on to my 2 kids like her own, she and I had a great friendship almost like family....I missed her very much but at the same time I am looking forward to seeing her one glorious day when we will all be together again forever, Mrs Phang was a beautiful person inside and outside she had a heart of gold she was special to all her friends and family and also special to GOD and that is why he called her home to be with him.
