“ Beautiful lady, elegant, kind. Always greeted everyone with a radiant smile. A better sister-in-law one could never find. Never a harsh word from her lips. One of the nicest persons that I've ever met. Never too busy to share her time. She listened, she comforted, an angel on earth, in my eyes. God called you home. Your work here is done. The laughter, the kind words are just memories now. But memories I will cherish for the rest of my life. Knowing you for as long as I did, was such an awesome delight. Rest in eternal peace, dear Garland. Guda Gayle-Evans

“ Mom Inez welcome my family and I into her life over 20 years ago as well as we returned the love to her. She was an awesome woman and proved it by her relationship with me through words of wisdom and guidance for these years. She provided a listening ear and a powerful voice of responses which made me stronger. Mom Inez was a woman who did not speak loud but truth and I will forever love her. Time is a rare luxury and I will forever cherish our time together. Thank you for the love.

“ Tribute to Aunt Sister Garland

‘Aunt Sister Garland? That’s what you call your aunt? Why not Sister Garland’? I was asked by many. Often, my response was quite blunt - “is that she name, Aunt Sister Garland.” I loved that term of endearment. It was unique.

Aunt Sister Garland was my foreign auntie, whose visits to Jamaica was a treat for me. I recall on one of her trips home, she announced that she wanted to make, ‘blue draws’(a cornmeal based desert wrapped in banana leaf). I remember her beaming with pride at the finished product as she beckoned me to taste. She loved to cook and in her earlier years loved to entertain. She went out of her way for Garfield and our sons when we visited her.

Try your best and don’t let Aunt Sister Garland laugh at you. She had a shrill, hearty laugh which was infectious. And if not laughing there was sometimes a smile on her face, but needless to say there was the serious side to her that meant , ‘don’t bother with the foolishness’.

Aunt Sister Garland was the queen of crocheting which I consider to be an awesome talent. It was astounding to see the creative pieces she made. I am the beneficiary of a beautifully made golden bed spread that she crocheted for me.

Aunt Sister Garland loved current affairs. Whenever we spoke she would update me on the politics of the day and delve into other issues and then ending with a word of advice.

Aunt Sister Garland, my spiffy aunt will be missed but I will treasure the memories shared, especially on that last visit where I combed her soft grey hair.

“ Tribute to Aunt Garland

With intricate details Aunt Garland crocheted the largest piece I have seen and to my amazement, presented it to my family as a Christmas present when my family spent the Holiday with her in Ocala in 2014. The special times we spent together on that trip stand out as significant and cherished memories. We shared scrumptious Jamaica meals, went to church together, took the bus, went walking and spent quality time with our dear aunty. Aunt Garland was congenial yet stern, grounded in tradition but able to flex. She will be remembered by my family as a special aunt.

*No guilt in life, no fear in death
This is the power of Christ in me
From life's first cry to final breath
Jesus commands my destiny*

*No power of hell, no scheme of man
Can ever pluck me from His Hand
Till He returns or calls me home
Here in the power of Christ I'll stand
(Kroch & Craig)
Rest in Jesus' arms aunty.*
