Irma was loved by everyone she knew. She was the matriarch of her family and no one can come close to filling her shoes. Irma loved to travel with her husband and family as often as they could. She enjoyed going on cruises with family and friends. In 2020 she finally agreed to purchase an RV with her husband and quickly fell in love with RVing. Her favorite pastime was going to the casino to play slots and when she couldn't get to the casino she enjoyed watching others play on TV. She also loved to bowl and was involved with several groups in her community, On Top of the World. As a child, she didn't have a lot and as an adult, she was always the first to share her good fortune with others.
