“ I don't even know where to start because you have been consistent from the beginning. I will never find a Gem as rare as you. You was my laughter.we have talked about everything, but nothing could prepare me for this. I am going to miss my text from you with all the hilarious mimes, I going to miss my morning text but most of all I am going to miss that smile. I love you Jim. May you rest in paradise.

There's no words for the loss that I feel. Jim has been the best part of me for so long. I feel so lost without him. We were always together and hardly ever apart. Jim was walking to a room and just light up the whole room with his smile. His friendship. He is such an angel.

“ Jim was the love I never thought I would find. From the day we met I knew he was so special. And I quickly realized why he had so many friends. He held his true friends so close. He always managed to keep in touch with his friends almost on a daily basis. as his life partner I can feel the love on a daily basis. I've had the privilege of having an angel by my side every day. Then the Lord decided he would bring him back to heaven. I'm beyond Hart broken. I feel part of my soul has been ripped from me. I am a better man today because I've had Jim in my Life. We lived life to the fullest. Got to see places and do things that I wouldn't want to do with anyone else. He makes My life worth living. I see him all around me. I can still feel his love. I ask God to give me strength.

“ What not to say about Jimmy. I know Jimmy since he was 8 years old I love them from the day I met him. He was like sunshine no matter where he went who we met. I'd see him down at Ethel's and he would say hey Ree you going to teach me how to shoot some pool. So I did and he made it a point to tell everybody I was the one that told him how to shoot pool. Through the years we've had many many times of love and family. Work together, he was my boss, he was my best friend, he was my brother he was a man that I would love for the rest of my life just for being the man that he was. Would do for anybody. There's no words to say how broken hearted my heart is. And to know that he passed with the best love of his life Arsenio. The love that was there good and will never be broken. I will miss you Jimmy fly High keep that beautiful smile on your face and smile down on us.

“ Jim was always so full of life and smiles even if something bothered him, he'd share it and always say.. I'll move on and find the good in whatever reason this is happening. I know he wouldn't want any of us to grieve as hard as we are but he truly touched our lives in a way that we can't fathom life without him. Jim and I had a bond never to be broken. He was an amazing friend. He loved like no other. He had an amazing relationship of love with his life partner Arsenio and he was the happiest ive ever seen him. He always wanted that for all who knew him to. I can't believe he's gone. My heart breaks for not only myself but for all who ever had the pleasure of really knowing him. I love you my friend and there is a piece of my heart missing now that you're not here. Thank you for your friendship and making me a better person.
RIP and I'll Talk to you Soon Sweetie!
