He went to high school at McArthur High School, participated on the cross country, track, and wrestling teams until he graduated in 1983. He attended some college classes at the University of Florida while assisting his father in training thoroughbred race horses. JB and his brother, Kevin, started McKathan Brothers LLC, the business consisted of selecting, buying, training, and selling thoroughbreds based off of their farm in Citra, FL. The brothers found early success with Storm Tower and November Snow; the two purchased and trained champion horses including Silver Charm, Real Quiet, Captain Steve, and Silverbulletday; and had an integral part in the success of, Pioneer of the Nile; Eclipse Award winner, Forever Unbridled; and Triple Crown winner, American Pharoah.

JB enjoyed skateboarding, riding, roping, wake boarding, and playing guitar, but preferred spending time with the race horses, family, friends and his Great Danes most. He and his brother won the Bruce Cambell Award in 2015 for training Triple Crown Grand Slam winner, American Pharoah. JB was involved in repeated donations to the Ocala Farm Ministry and Old Friends Thoroughbred Retirement Farm.

JB will be forever remembered by his wife, Leigh; brothers, Kevin, Gary, and

Jeff; sister, Brenda Conyers; parents, Norma, Luke (Jocelyn); nieces, Brianna and Savannah; and nephews, Russell Conyers, Rowan and Conrad McDavitt, and Morgan Curtin. JB was preceded in death by his sister, Denise Schwacke.
