

James Wallace

December 21, 1923 - July 24, 2009

Obituary of James Wallace WALLACE, JAMES MUIR JR. -
85SUMMERFIELD- Mr, James Muir Wallace Jr. died at his residence on Friday, July 24, 2009 surrounded by his loving family. Jim was born on December 21, 1923 in Attleboro, MA. He was a highly skilled woodworker and finish carpenter by trade. He moved to Florida from Falmouth, MA in 1977 and was a member of the Belleview East Jehovah's Witness Congregation. He was preceded in death by his parents, James Muir Wallace Sr. and Sara E (Palmer) Wallace, first wife, Gertrude (Pineo) Wallace, and sisters, Helen Hadden, Barbara King, and Bertha Curtis. He will be missed by those who survive him, including his wife, Marilyn Wallace of Summerfield; sister, Ruth Rheaume of Amherst, NH; son, James M. Wallace III of Summerfield; and granddaughter, Michele Eisenstien of Plantation, FL.

Tribute Wall

DA

“ You won't believe how I was led to contact you. However, here I am after 27 years connecting with you and others in my past. I would like to chat and up-date on what's been happening in your life. I am married to a beautiful gal now for 17 years-[no kids]. I run maintenance for "Bobby & Steve's Autoworld's" 8 locations thru-out the metro. They are "super Stations" ..... Mobil gas, convenience stores/delis/restaurants/car washes/full service repair shops/ 50's theme with fully restored cars on display. Needless to say I stay veeeery busy. I'm interested in your reply. Meantime I send you my love and sincere condolences on you dad's passing. God bless you and watch over you. Still your friend, Donny.

---

Don Ainsworth - December 26, 2009 at 12:00 AM