

Jamie Lynn Salvas

March 29, 1974 - August 17, 2023

Jamie Lynn Salvas born on March 29, 1974 in Virginia Beach, Virginia, to Thomas Jerry Suggs and Deborah Louise Dagget, passed away August 17, 2023 in Marion County Ocala, Florida.

She was an artist with laughter and sarcasm in her back pocket. She was never scared to call it like it was and give the world the middle finger as she did. She would typically be found writing books featuring worlds of her own creation, kicking back around a bonfire with friends, or at whatever activity her daughter was participating in. She loved the beach, especially Daytona, and would spend hours at a time just playing in the water or napping on the sand. Sunsets on the beach were a favorite. She loved motorcycles and would attend every Daytona bike fest that she could, often camping on the beach during them. She spent many nights playing card games, watching her favorite movies and shows, or reading, all with her family and extended family.

She was a single mother who took a very active role in her daughter's life, attending every sporting event, dance recital, swim meet, play, speech, or performance her daughter ever participated in without fail. She was often seen at these events, decked out supportively in team colors, face paint, markers, and flags, and was often known to be the loudest in the crowd.

She had a passion for Muscovy Ducks, and had recently taken on the role of

Vice President of The Muscovy Sanctuary of Florida, which was a role she adored. She also loved spending time with family and friends, cuddling her duck and cat, and living in the moment.

Above all, she loved living her life and did it with a smile. A smile which only got bigger with every person she proved wrong.

She is survived by her aunt Diana Craig, her sister Sabrina Suggs, her daughter Rin Suggs, and her feather and fur children Ad'ika and Mar'eyce.

“ My phoenix sister, you are already missed. Twelve years you stood by us and there wasn't a day went by we didn't know we were important to you, family to you. Love you whole big bunches, I'll see you again someday. Till then, we've got your girl's back and I'll love her like my own. Rest now, troublemaker. ha You're always in our hearts.

“ Jamie you will forever hold a place in my heart. A piece of me went with you the day you pass. I will never forget you. I will always remember our long conversations into the night. All the times we met up and hung out. We have known each other since 1995. You were a true friend. I love you so much.
