

Jane Margaret Naisbett

February 22, 1937 - February 14, 2026

Jane Margaret Naisbett, age 88, passed away peacefully on February 14, 2026 at her son's home in Demopolis, Alabama surrounded by family. Jane was born February 22, 1937 in London, England. She is survived by her son, Richy Naisbett of Demopolis, AL and her daughter, Anna Vellone of Westport, CT; her 7 grandchildren, Rachel, Christopher, Timothy, Daniel, and Charlotte Naisbett, Carter Naisbett and Jack Vellone; 2 daughter in laws, Diana Naisbett (Andy) and Tiffany Ground Naisbett (Richy) and 1 son in law, Bobby Vellone. She also leaves behind a dear cousin in England, Chris Pashley (Jean) and many nieces and nephews in England and in New York. She was preceded in death by her husband of 45 years Tony Naisbett, her son Andy Naisbett, and her sister, Susan Kaye of Elmira, NY. She and her husband Tony emigrated from England in the 60's and were a part of the Thoroughbred horse community of Ocala for many years. She lived in and around Ocala for over 50 years. Jane enjoyed traveling and had a great appreciation for nature and wildlife. She also loved gardening and all types of music, jazz being her favorite. She visited many jazz clubs in NYC and New Orleans throughout the years. In her later years she had several health challenges including COPD and Macular Degeneration, but continued to live independently and with dignity throughout her final years. Jane will be missed tremendously by her children, grandchildren, extended family and friends. She had a great sense of humor, a quick wit and was loved by everyone. A memorial service will be held for family and close friends at a later date and her ashes will be spread in Cedar Key as she wished.
