“ Janet was one of a kind. Her love of horses was purely appreciation and wonder at God's artistic work while creating such a beautiful creature; yet she rarely rode. She was our "go to" person concerning horse care while at Star Gazer Farm next door. I'll always remember her family dinners and how she NEVER ate left overs!!! Janet was blessed in her family life. She was a great daughter, wife and mother. With a heart as big as hers I feel lucky to have briefly been touched by her grace. I was always made to feel as part of the family at the Levine's...I've thought back on that many times over the years because I found it so touching and remarkable. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.
