“ This kind lady was the mother of my dear friend Eco Hilyard. I remember her kindness when I stayed with Echo. I miss the whole family. I am sorry this is so late. I just found out today. I am sorry for the loss of Cloyd Hilyard as well. Donna Clay Odenweller.

“ My deepest condolences to your family. Jeanann and I grew up together on Western Av. in Chicago, Il. This is the first year I did not receive a Christmas card from her in many many years and the last I did hear from her she gave me the bad news that she and Earl's house had burned down. I have tried to reach her by phone but, was unable to succeed. I finally tried Google and much to my sadness, I saw that she had passed away just recently. I can't tell you all how deeply sorry I am that I did not know before today. Several years ago Jeanann and Earl surprised me with a visit here In Abita Springs. They were on their way home after delivering a fire engine and she saw the Abita Springs exit off of I-12 and decided to stop. Your Mom played a very big part in my life, I grew up just a block away from her and we were best friends for many years. I visited her and her Mother many times in Lake Bluff and was even lucky enough to make a summer trip with them to Mount Holly, Vermont, for a born in the city girl, it was a wonderful trip that I will never forget. Please except my sincere condolences.

“ Mom was always there. Regardless of the situation, if one of us was sick or hurting, she would travel the distance to be there.
