“ To my greatest friend Jeremiah, I'll never forget the good times we had. You were one crazy s.o.b that lived life to the fullest. I'll always cherish the special friendship we had. I'll never forget Monday night football at Champs, endless nights at Bilmar. Poker nights (wherever we ended up). Especially that fateful Saturday night, where we had a great heart to heart talk and you told me you were thinking of leaving Tampa. I told you to promise not to leave without saying goodbye. You told me you would never do that to me because I was a close friend, and I was in your heart. After the events of the past week, I could see how many people you held close to your heart. You were an amazing person who touched a lot of people. I love you, I'll miss you, and I'll never forget you. Your friend-Bryan Bell.

“ Jeremiah, We go back a long way my friend. I remember the first time we met like it was yesterday. Playing basketball behind your house with Prichard, you kept getting mad at me because I would dunk (8ft goal) and then hang on the rim like a rabid monkey .that day was over 15 years ago and our friendship grew everyday after. We had some great times all through High School. Always plotting on your front porch thinking we were slick, while the whole time your Mom was getting the scoop from the bathroom window. We ran around Ft. Knox with Jon, Dave, Mike and anyone else who was crazy enough to hang out with us. We took our first steps as men together, moving down to Tampa with Will and starting a new life. From that point on it was go time, it never stopped and it never slowed down. You never had a problem making friends, you were the center of a lot of lives.including mine. Jeremiah, you were there for some of the most important things in my life. You were the first to come to the hospital to see my first born. You were the Best Man at my wedding. You ARE my Best Friend, You ARE my Brother. This truly breaks my heart and I will always hurt, but I take comfort in the fact like always, when we last spoke it ended with an I LOVE YOU. THANK YOU FOR HELPING ME BECOME THE MAN I AM TODAY THANK YOU FOR THE THOUSANDS OF SMILES THANK YOU FOR THE THOUSANDS OF LAUGHS THANK YOU FOR THE THOUSANDS OF MEMORIES THANK YOU BEING JEREMIAH PATRICK MCCUE
