

Jermaine Anthony Prescod

September 4, 1981 - March 19, 2026

Jermaine Anthony Prescod was born on September 4, 1981, in Brooklyn, New York, to Allison Eutrice Prescod and Darcus Leo Wright. A child of God, Jermaine experienced his share of life's ups and downs, heartaches, and challenges. Yet, his life was also filled with many beautiful and memorable moments that we will love and cherish forever. Jermaine's angelic smile and charismatic personality were truly one of a kind. He passed away on March 19, 2026.

He is survived by his six precious children: Noah, Tony, Styles, Jermaine Jr., Brooklyn, and Eden; his father; his grandmother, Yvonne Ealy; and a large, loving family that includes his aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, and nephews. He also leaves behind his four siblings: Qyana, Marvin, James, and Ashley. Jermaine was preceded in death by his mother, Allison Eutrice Prescod; his maternal grandparents, Winston and Carmelita Prescod; and his grandfather, Sherwin Ealy.

“ Maine and I go back to HS Roger Bacon.. He was a few years a head of me so our paths didn't really cross. After HS, We had a mutual friend that stayed a couple houses up from his Grandparents house in College Hill. This is when we really became closer friends.. Maine and smoked A LOT of pot together and played Guitar hero over BC's place we had a whole band.. on guitar hero lol there were four of us... Now there's Two with the passing of Guy. You will always be Smacked to me bra. I wasn't able to be there but I watched bra and miss you already! Love you Smacked Dude. Bert.

“ Jermaine was a great friend to me and like a brother. I spent countless weekends over the Ealy's house as a teenager. Jermaine and his grandparents are a big reason that I have a relationship with God today. I am blessed to have know Jermaine and I am also devastated by this news. Wrapping my arms around the family and friends at this time.
