“ Dear Rabbah Sara and Ashrae, Please forgive us for being so tardy with our condolences. We just heard of Rabbi Jerry's passing a few days ago. We were in shock and still are, a little. Of course, we were aware of the visual and auditory issues he was struggling with but knew of nothing life-threatening. Now there is an empty place in our lives that no one else will ever fill. We can only guess at what you are experiencing. At the same time, we pray that the G-d of all comfort will comfort you both and provide for all your needs and that you will be able to comfort one another. We are so grateful for knowing you. Most Sincerely, Matthew & Candace

“ Rabbi Keyes taught me the Bible as a child. He is such a wonderful man and will be missed by so many. His teachings will go on for generations. I cant wait to see Him in Heaven. I pass on to others what I learned from him and people are intrigued, drawn in, and desire to learn about the Lord and the Word in a new way.
