

Jimmy Mancil Sr

May 6, 2020 - February 5, 2020

Jimmy Wayne Mancil Sr., 72

Former Phenix City, Ala. resident Jimmy Wayne Mancil Sr., 72, died unexpectedly on Feb. 5, 2020, in Ocala, Fla. where he resided for the past 17 years.

Jimmy was born on Aug. 14, 1947 in Columbus, Ga. to Jack and Francis Marie Mancil. He worked for many years in the automotive paint and body industry and his interests included cheering on Alabama Crimson Tide football, playing horseshoes, barbequing, recalling significant dates and fun facts, and most of all, spending time with family members and friends.

Jimmy is survived by his siblings Helen Foxworth and Jackie Mancil as well as many beloved nieces and nephews and friends whom he considered family. He was preceded in death by his sister Sue Lester and her husband Lance Lester as well as his brother-in-law Howard Foxworth and former sister-in-law Donna Fletcher. Jimmy also is survived by his dearly loved children Connie Cook and Jimmy Wayne Mancil Jr. and their spouses Russell Cook and Katherine Mancil as well as five Grandchildren named Carissa, Jake, Joseph, Rebecca and Julie and one great-grandchild named Jacen, all of whom held an extra special place in his heart.

A Celebration of Life event will be held on Feb. 16 at Carney Island Park in Ocklawaha, Fla. followed by funeral services on Feb. 22 in Phenix City, Ala., where his cremated remains will be laid to rest. Jimmy was a fun-loving kid at heart who never met a stranger. He will be sorely missed.
