Joan Alice (Bennett, White, Asta-Ferrero, Goff) was born on July 14, 1936 in Ludlow, Massachusetts. She was also baptized at the church of St. Matthews of Indian Orchard, Massachusetts on August 2, 1936. Married to John J. Goff on April 14, 2012 in Huntington, Massachusetts. Joan lived a life that exemplified her name and in doing so, left a legacy for all that knew and loved her. The doors to her home and her heart were always open. She will be remembered for her unconditional love, her gentle spirit, her forgiving nature, her inner strength, her unwavering faith. She loved writing poetry. She was a singer and song writer. She had a soft heart for animals. She loved to draw and most of all she loved her family and friends. Always loved the four seasons up in her state of Massachusetts. We will miss her deeply. No services at this time but will be in the future in the state of Massachusetts.

Always Loved, Sadly missed

We love you, Momsie, Mom, Momma, Ma.

“ My Momsie was a beautiful, fun loving, caring person and I miss her so much! She was a very kind person and loved her three kids unconditionally! I really miss making her laugh and seeing her smile! I miss when she would call me sonsie! I wanted to thank her for giving birth to me and for bringing me up for the first 10 years of my life! I miss the way she told her stories too! COVID started happening when she was admitted into a rehab and we never got a chance to tell her that we loved her, because we weren't allowed to see her due to all the tight restrictions (something I'll regret forever)! But, I think she knew that we all tried as best as we could to see her during that time. Momsie put up with a lot and always had the wherewithal, to come through life's challenges unscathed. THERE WAS NO ONE LIKE MY MOMSIE! She was one in a million and I am proud that she was my mom!~Love Always; Wayne

“ I will never forget the day I met you my friend, before we met we chatted for many years online in a chat room I had up & running called "Do Drop Inn" seems like a lifetime ago now. I wanted to meet the people that I chatted with in that room so I had a get together at my home & Joanie came from CT where she lived at the time. So many wonderful memories followed until her passing! I will miss you my dear friend, until we meet again. R.I.P. Joanie! I know your watching over your family & friends & the suffering is over for you now. Peace...

“ I love you momma. I miss you so much. We went through a lot in the year's. You were my best friend. You always worried about me so much. I will be fine. I was brought up by a strong woman. I know you will be around checking up on me. What bothers me so much is I couldnt even see you for three weeks when you were in the rehab facility. If I was there I could of saved you and you would be here today. I did talk to you on that day and I said I love you. You said I love you back. At least I got to say that. So the angels got you now. You have no pain with no suffering. Love your daughter Bettejayne

“ Always remember getting excited when Joan came over to our house in Spfld. Always an exciting story and a contagious laughter. I remember when she painted her car blue. And on the back trunk she painted the words passing side and suicide lol Loved her personality and her love of life...RIP one of my favorite cuddies...
