

Joan Healy

April 25, 1931 - August 23, 2021

Joan Galvin Healy passed away peacefully on August 23, 2021. She was 90 years old. Joan now joins her beloved husband, Robert Healy, in God's heaven.

She is survived by her daughters, Colleen Bronder, Joan Kownacki, Mary Ellen Youmans; her son, Robert Healy; son-in-laws, John Kownacki, Frederick Youmans, Lloyd Bragoz; and all of her many grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Some of Joan's favorites in life were shopping, eating out and dancing. But the most important thing in her life was her family. After her retirement from Columbia Presbyterian Hospital, she completely dedicated all of her time to her family. Joan Healy put the meaning in the phrase "There's No Place Like Home", because she was the very heart and soul of what it means to be home. There has never been anyone like her before, and there will never be anyone quite like her again.

She will live within all of our hearts and be missed deeply. She will never be forgotten and we will carry her loving memory always and forever.
