

John Bresnahan

July 11, 1936 - November 28, 2020

John Alfred Bresnahan, Jr., 84, born July 11, 1936 in Washington, DC, to John Alfred Bresnahan, Sr. and Alice Pauline Snyder Bresnahan, left for his final tour while in the arms of his loving wife, Holly on November 28, 2020 at Malcolm Randolph VA Medical Hospital in Gainesville, Florida. He was known as the unofficial Mayor of Ocklawaha, Florida always helping others by taking friends to the doctor or to the grocery store and helping out when ever he could. His love for his country, fellow Veterans and animals came through with the generous monthly donations of more than 20 charitable organizations. His favorites were the Wounded Warriors, Am Vets, North Shore Animal League, Paws of Honor and many more. John was preceded in death by both parents and a daughter, Donna Bresnahan Wilde. He is survived by his wife, Holly; daughters, Sherry Warner, Joan Wilde, Polly Watson, Tracy Soper; 11 grandchildren and 9 great grandchildren. John's cremated remains will be released on or near his birthday on the Chesapeake Bay in a private ceremony.