

John Courtney

April 5, 1928 - April 13, 2013

Obituary of John Courtney John Overton Courtney (Jack) passed away Saturday 4/13 at the Legacy House Hospice in Ocala following complications from a hip fracture in December. He was born April 5, 1928 in Cincinnati Ohio, son of Overton John and Hilda (nee Kinzel) Courtney. He is survived by his beloved wife of 57 years, Katharine R. (Braun) Courtney, his children Steven J. Courtney of Park City, UT and his daughter Sandra A. Courtney Wherry and her husband Kevin, of Monson, MA. He will also be greatly missed by his grandchildren Geoffrey Courtney and his fiancée Alyssa Marcantonio - both currently serving in the Navy in Virginia Beach, VA; Ian Courtney, currently serving in the Navy in Whidby Island, WA, Tyler Courtney of Oswego, NY and Drew Wherry of Monson, MA. He is also survived by his great-grandchildren Hunter, Nathaniel and Abrielle Courtney. He was preceded in death by his sister Mary (nee Courtney) Fick and his grandson Ryan Wherry. Jack honorably served in the Army stateside during the Korean War, at which time he discovered his love for engineering. He took these skills to work for Black Clawson in Cincinnati OH, Watertown, NY and finally retiring from the company's Fulton, NY plant to Ocala in 1990. Jack was an active member of Queen of Peace Parish, and his family and his church were foremost in his life. Those close to Jack will remember and cherish him as a man of honor and faith. The family would like to thank Brenda Fenty and the caregivers at Whispering Hope for their compassionate and prayerful care of Jack in his final weeks. A gathering of friends will take place at Roberts Funeral Homes
