“ We are saddened to hear about John and extend our deepest sympathy. Revelation 21:4 says that one day death, mourning, and tears will be things of the past. May your memories of him and the hope of the resurrection comfort you in the days ahead. (Acts 24:15)

“ So we do not lose heart. Though our outer self is wasting away, our inner self is being renewed day by day. For this light momentary affliction is preparing for us an eternal weight of glory beyond all comparison, as we look not to the things that are seen but to the things that are unseen. For the things that are seen are transient, but the things that are unseen are eternal. 2 Corinthians 4:16-18 These difficult times won't last, but cherished memories will. My prayer is the comfort of Christ will carry family and friends through this difficult time of loss.

“ John 10:27-29 "My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of my hand. My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all, and no one is able to snatch them out of the Father's hand. May the peace that passes all understanding be with you.

“ Dearest Mary and Family The Sun will shine again and its warmth you will feel on your skin. So will be the memories of your Dad and the warmth it will bring. Its not the end, however sad, for one day you will meet again. Until then, God hold you fast and shower you with His love. André (South Africa)

“ Daddy, You fought so hard, in a battle you never should have had to fight. Words are hard to find right now to express how sorry I am, and how much Rest now Daddy. I love you and miss you. Your Loving Daughter, Mary I found this poem online for you Daddy: God Saw You Getting Tired God saw you getting tired and a cure was not to be So he put his arms around you and whispered "Come With Me." With tearful eyes we watched you, slowly fade away, Although we loved you dearly, we would not make you stay. A golden heart stopped beating, hard working hands at rest. God broke our hearts to prove to us, He only takes the best.
