GW

“ Jay, you were my best student during a 30-year career of teaching English. You were in my 5th hour seventh grade class in 1975 and wrote many outstanding poems and other writing assignments that I still have copies to enjoy and share. The world will be a worse place without your presence. You were a treasure.

“ Happy "Heavenly" Birthday
Each year that this day comes to be, I always think of you and all the great times we had traveling all over
See you someday...
