“ Nanny & Papa, as I called him, were the best grandparents that the universe could have possibly provided. Their love for family was truly unconditional and they will be missed forever... I take comfort in knowing that Papa has finally been reunited with his love. Rest in peace, Papa... you are so loved.

“ We will miss you, John, our dear friend and former neighbor. We arrived in Ocala in 1981 as you and Kirsti did, and we were so lucky to have you as our next door neighbors. We shared many special milestones and memories through the years-even a special trip to Italy. We were so proud of your commitment to bring Kirsti "home" after her spinal cord stroke. You made her wish a reality. John, you were always there for your family- la familia you would say. Not only Kirsti, but Frank, Chris and Savannah benefited from your love and devotion ...and you were able to meet your great grandson too. Our deepest sympathies to the Napolitano family... John is now at peace with his Kika.....
