“ John was one of my first and closest friends at ECU. We were both Teaching Fellows and spent a lot of time together in meetings, but also hung out and had meals, played games, etc. He taught me how to play DDR in the dorms. When we graduated, we still kept in touch and would visit occasionally. I remember staying with John and Amanda when they only had Johnny. We stayed up till 3 in the morning playing Killer Bunnies and just having a good time! And then one day, I was in Greenville for a football game and reached out because Cheryl had been born and I wanted to meet her. Because of hanging out that day, I met my sweet husband. John and Amanda definitely had a hand in helping us get to know each other, hosting game nights where we kept seeing each other and developed a friendship. We were even able to go on a vacation together which was so much fun. I'm sad that it had been several years since we've seen each other and that we didn't talk as much as we used to, however John will always have a special place in our hearts for his friendship, for being a groomsman in our wedding and for his sense of humor. Amanda, Johnny, Cheryl and Lewis - Jeffery and I are praying for you. For strength, for peace and for healing. We love you guys!

“ He was the best dad. Over the years he came & helped up to 7 kids going to the beach/Fort Macon, Pine Knoll Shores Aquarium, Marbles museum, Imperial Centre, Busch Gardens, Beirut Memorial, parks, McDonalds, DQ, police station, fire department, camping w/Scouts, Imagination Station, Discover the Dinosaurs, church stuff, popcorn sales, and other things for the kids. He was my babies' 2nd dad.

He & Amanda are why I have work at Target. He put in a good word for me there & at my current job. He taught my older kids some of the games we know & love, and he & his family are why we like Peggle, Cinema Sins, badly translated songs, & Film Theory/Game Theory. No matter how tired he was from working, he always carved out time for family (his own and mine) whether it was funny videos, Anime, cards/board games, help with school work, cooking, cleaning, Scout stuff, bottles/diapers, & DDR (he could beat anyone but was humble about it). He loved my babies like his own & was the best husband/dad/friend/coworker anyone could ever want.
