“ I first met Ronnie in 7th grade. He was always such a nice guy. I last saw him at our high school reunion in 2013. I will miss him.

“ Cousin Jack : Dad,Cedan told me your son passed several days ago. Just wanted to say "sorry for your loss." I've heard it said parents shouldn't have the burden of burying their own children. I didn't know Ronnie, but know he comes from 'good stock.' You all are in my thoughts and prayers. Love, Cousin Sharon & husband Mike.

“ My heart and prayers goes out to you all. Ronnie was such a gentle and kind soul. Many great memories of growing up through school days and reconnecting in the years since. He could always be counted on to bring a smile or chuckle, and provide a shoulder to lean on when needed. So glad he was able to come to the last high school reunion, myself and many of his class friends were so happy to see and spend time with him. He will be dearly, dearly missed.

“ Jack, Bev and Jackie, I am so sorry for your loss of Ronnie. I have only good memories with him growing up on Wolfe Drive in Fairborn. I am glad I had the time to visit with him recently. We enjoyed talking about others we grew up with and high school experiences and looking forward to him visiting Ohio. He was a good friend to me and will be missed greatly. My thoughts and prayers are with you as you go thru this difficult time.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Ronnie was my friend online and he had a very bright mind. I know he lived in pain and that limited him so much. I hope his suffering has eased, and I hope the pain of your loss lessens with each day until he becomes a fond memory. peace to you all.

“ There isn't much more to say other than....I am sorry. I'm sorry for the pain you were in for so long. I'm sorry for a life cut too short. And, I am sorry for the void left behind in so many lives. I will miss not seeing you online and discussing politics. I will think of you often and fondly because you were a good and kind man. I am also glad that your pain has finally ended. Jack and family, I am sorry for your loss. May you have peace now.
