

Joseph St Andrie

September 19, 1941 - September 17, 2017

Joseph (Gene) St. Andrie Traveled around the world, lived and worked in two foreign countries and lived and had a 25 year career in Washington, D.C. as a contractor to the Navy He had an award winning career as a support contractor in the financial and accounting areas for the U.S. Navy. He was part of the contract that managed production of large ship production. He received awards from the Navy and his company for himself and his team for innovation and excellence. He had a career of 30 plus years in public and private accounting, including five years of overseas employment. He retired at the end of his last contract ending 30 September 2016. And moved to Florida, where he and his wife owned a home for over 20 years. He was a Veteran of the United States Air Force; He proudly served and was honorably discharged. He grew up on the Mississippi Gulf coast, to parents Brose (deceased) and Odean St. Andrie. As a young man, he was an Eagle Scout and attained the Silver Award for senior Boy Scouts as a youth. He graduated from the University of Southern Mississippi with a BS in finance, with a major in accounting. Gene was married for thirty six years to his wife and best friend Jackie with three children, a son Jon Davis, his wife Tricia and a grandson Tyler. They also have two daughters, Stephanie St. Andrie and Kimberly Solis, her husband Frank and grandsons Jared and Aidan, and a special grandson Noah Foster. He is also survived by his Brother Robert and wife Debbie and his Mother.

Tribute Wall

MA

“ Condolences to you and your family Jackie we are saddened by the news of Saint passing and very glade we got to no him in this short time that we met Patrick and Mazie Laviolette

Mazie - September 22, 2017 at 12:00 AM