“ I would like to offer condolences to the lovely family of Mr. Latona. I had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Latona and many of his family members when they invited me to Mr. Latona's home for Thanksgiving one year. I was warmly welcomed as one of the family. His companion Christy Wiley had a love for Mr. Latona that was very apparent. Christy, may your memories and the knowledge that you brightened his life comfort you now. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you. Love, Mary Jo Clark, Durham, NC.

“ I'm sorry for our loss of great uncle joe. He was such a great and caring man. Specially having to put up with me and my siblings. He did so much for so many and we will all miss him for that. He is now resting in peace and back with his wife and son. Until we meet again uncle joe! Love and miss you forever and always in my heart and prayers!
