J,

“ Pop, I miss you so much and my heart is torn into peices. You always had the right answer for everything and a Bible verse to back it up. If you didnt you would always tell me "if you cant put your hands on it there is nothing(you)can do about it"... Give it to GOD. I am so sad that you are not here anymore. I love you so much pop. I wish I could hug you just one more time. But I cant put my hands on you.... So I have to give you to GOD. I will think of you everyday pop. I love you and I will see you later.

“ To Papa Joe, I'll remember all the good times we had when you were teaching me how to drive a truck. All the fun times we had at the truck stops all over the country. The get togethers during Thanksgiving when Catherine was around. May you rest now and you are finally home my friend. You will be missed from Cody and myself.

“ My heart goes out to Linda, Heather, Joey and the rest of the family as we all deal with the passing of a wonderful man. No one had a bigger heart than Joe and that was evident in the way he lived his life, not for himself, but for others. I have many fond memories of Joe and I am a better man for knowing him. My children were blessed to have him as their granddad and fortunate to have been able to spend as much time with him as possible. His life was cut way too short but his memory will continue to live within each of us. I know Joe is definitely in Heaven right now, probably trying to stir up a fishing trip or poker game. But whatever he is doing, he is doing it with a smile on his face. We'll miss you.
