“ I am sorry to hear of the passing of Judy. However heaven has gained another angel! I'm very blessed to have called her friend, mentor, adopted mom at times, and most of all one of my biggest champion through difficult moments in my life. I will miss you and see you again one day!

“--Jesus Was Your Closest Friend-- I knew you were hurting although you couldn't cry, And could see you were suffering, see the pain, Oh My! I wanted to comfort you, to hold you, be with you that day, You looked so helpless and frail while in bed you did lay. I watched as you shivered from a new pain, And wondered how I might have handled the same. I wanted to scream, to shout, and to yell, You couldn't anymore and your skin was so pale. I didn't want to believe your time was near end, And wished I could take you, your body to mend. I knew that soon Jesus would be your closest friend, You told me many times that's how it would end. I stood there watching as each forced breath came slow, And fought to find courage, my emotions were low. I promised you when the time came that I'd try not to cry, You never saw my eyes wet, I tried to keep them dry. I held your hand as I silently prayed and did not want to say goodbye, And knew in my heart that soon you would die. I stroked your forehead and said how I loved you, You couldn't speak but I felt that you knew. I no longer care, my tears I can't hide, And as I stood there waiting for death by your side. I knew then that Jesus was your closest friend, You had told me many times that's how it would end.

“ Ms. Judy was the one who hired me when I worked for Lifetouch, she was one of the sweetest ladies I've ever known. Always looking out for others and trying to give back what she could. I was so happy for her when she and Gary wed. They were great together. I am deeply saddened at the news of her passing. Everyone at Lifetouch were so close, like a little family. My heartfelt condolences go out to all of her family and friends. Heaven truly gained another angel.

“ I didn't know Judy very long however, I know that she was a very giving and caring person. She's probably up there in Heaven looking down still worrying and making sure everyone is ok. God Bless you Judy!
