“ May God's peace and comfort surround all Justin's family and friends. Not only was he wholly blessed, he was a true blessing to all others. To his parents, while raising Justin you must have done everything right because he was absolutely precious in every way. Now he is home and at peace. We thank you Justin for all your help these past several years. PS I will never forget my favorite boyfriend at Sherwin Williams. myra

“ I never had the joy of meeting Justin but feel I knew him through being a mother myself of a redheaded son who has similar demons; charm and a smile that lights up any room. May you and your family find solace and peace in knowing his battle is over. He would want you to remember the all the times you guided him in the right direction and times spent together. Renee; I want you to know you are my kindred spirit; I admire and respect you so much. I will always be there for you. Love Rita Baldwin

“ Our prayers and sincere condolences for the loss of your son Justin. Words can not express our sadness. I remember the first time he was introduced to me by my daughter Aika. A good looking guy, energetic and with a big sweet smile. Until now, I can't believe that he has gone at such a youthful age. I know Justin and Aika loved each other so much but God had other plans for both of them. Justin brought joy and happiness to Aika. We will always cherish the beautiful memories of Justin and may his soul rest in peace. With thoughts of peace and courage for you. Des and Karl “ Renee, I came to visit Justin and stay with you back in July '04. That visit was so very special to me. I spent time with you all and you truly touched my life. Justin was the first boy to show me what it meant to be loved. He was so caring, generous, and considerate. He was a genuine individual. His light shined so brightly. His smile was infectious. Back then, I was so young and still learning so much. We were so far away from each other. He taught me a lot about love. About how to treat someone. About how you should appreciate them and show them every chance you get. He was my first love. I know he was the man he was because of you. Thank you for him. My thoughts and prayers are with you and yours for always.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with Justin's family. There are few people that always brightened the day of those around them and Justin was one of them. From patio land soccer to thanksgiving football, Justin was always there, smiling and making everyone laugh. I can't help but smile when I think of Justin.... Justin's enthusiasm, sense of humor, kind heart and friendship will be greatly missed. I know Justin is smiling down on us and may he rest in peace.

“ Justin, I don't know how to put into words how much our friendship meant to me. You always made everything so much fun! You brought humor and laughter to everything you encountered! Growing up together, especially through our middle school years, made such an impact on my life! You were always marching to your own drum, and never had any trouble showing people who you really were. You were such a great person to talk to. You always were there to lend an ear, and usually had some witty advice to share! Then there was the time we were neighbors! It was always a blast knowing that every weekend we would have a ton of friends down by the pool, cooking out and enjoying the sun. I will never forget you. Your smile and laughter will always be in my heart! You are so loved and missed! --Love Always-- Jessi

“ Your energy and humor have been a huge inspiration in my life wether you realized it or not. You showed me there is something to laugh about in everything and I find myself looking for that something at this moment. You always had a way with using words in your own style, your an innovator of life my friend. You were a main ingredient for fun in all of our travel soccer tournaments. As we got older you never lost one bit of those amazing qualities and the last couple of times we chilled you made me feel really missed and lifted up my spirits when I was down about being injured. A guy like you doesn't come around often and I'm truly thankful I got to enjoy some of life's memories with you. Until we all meet again, I love you man.
