“ Please accept my sincere condolences. I mourn the loss of someone so young. May the Ovalle family find true peace and comfort from God's promise to reunite us with Katherine and our dear loved ones again by means of an earthly resurrection where death will be eliminated forever. Truly, what a glorious and unbelievable day that will be, for God cannot lie!

“ I worked with Katherine at AT&T, she was vibrant,fun and a very kind hearted young lady. We would make each other laugh and since we were on the same team of course keep each other motivated.This was a great loss to everyone who was blessed to have known her. May god hold her tightly and the angles give her wings as she is now one of them

“ I am so very sorry for your loss. To lose a loved one is such a heart wrenching experience, let alone to lose someone at such a young age. One may ask Do these things go unnoticed by our all mighty creator? The Bible gives us a clear answer to that question, in Proverbs 6:16,17 not only do we learn that God values life but that He also has strong feelings about those who harm others. That scripture says that the hands that shed innocent blood are detestable to him. Now, will he take action? What will he do in the future that will help us feel comfort now after such a loss? You can find an answer to these questions and more in our website, JW.org!
