

Kathryn Klein

December 31, 1969 - November 21, 2013

Obituary of Kathryn Klein Kathryn (Kat) L. Klein, 55 of Ocala, FL passed away on Thursday, Nov 21, 2013 at the MRMC. Kathryn was born in St. Petersburg, Florida and was a life long resident of Florida. She was the Purchasing Manager for the Environmental Services Division (Water Supply) for Broward County. Kat excelled at scholarly pursuits, achieving the degrees of BFA in Classical Music from Florida Atlantic University and a MBA specializing in Government from The University of Phoenix. She loved community service, fantasy literature, nature, animals, and science fiction. She was an avid fan of Star Trek and Doctor Who - woe to the person who would dare to match her creative humorous wit or challenge her in a contest of trivia! She had an exceptional skill for music, achieving mastery of the classical guitar as well as composing and conducting. She also served her community by participating in various projects and events organized by Circle K (Kiwanis). Kat was an exceptionally kind sensitive person who could find the bright side of any situation. This quality gave great comfort to those that loved her, even as her own health was in decline. Kathryn is survived by her husband Richard Klein, parents Stephen and Carlette Max, and a host of family and friends. There will be a celebration of life service for Kathryn at the Cypress Cove Care Center on Dec. 9th at 2:00 PM at 700 SE 8th Avenue in Crystal River all are welcome to attend and celebrate with the family.
