“ Otto There are no words to say that can make the pain go away when you lose someone you loved so much. You get an emptiness inside that will always be there, because a part of you is missing. Time will make it a little easier, but you will never be whole again. I am so sorry for your loss and remember you have many friends that will be there for you, because you have always been there for them. We care about you and are praying for you and your family.
