

Kelly Lynn Wevodau

February 21, 1981 - October 28, 2019

Kelly Lynn Wevodau, 38, passed away unexpectedly on October 28, 2019. Kelly was born on February 21, 1981 in Camp Hill, Pennsylvania. She moved to Ocala with her family almost 30 years ago. She attended Osceola Middle School and Forest High School. In her early years, Kelly wrote poetry and loved music, arts, sports, and especially playing basketball. Kelly loved taking care of people, and as an adult she attended Taylor College to become an LPN. Most of all Kelly was proud to be a mother to her 4 boys. Juggling parenting and working to support them was very difficult indeed, especially since Kelly raised her boys pretty much as single parent. However, the love she had for her children made all the tough times worth it. Kelly was preceded in death by her father Charles J. Wevodau in July 2019 and her niece Helena Moffett in 2014. She will continue to live on in the hearts of her parents Gary and Darla Smith; sons McKenzey Johnson, Kaiden Johnson, Immanuel Timmons, and Isaac Timmons; sister Courtney (David) Hooks; brother John Moffett; as well as several aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Tribute Wall

LI

“ May you Rest in His Peace and may The Lord give your family and friends especially you beautiful children HIS grace and wisdom and unconditional love and guidance. You were a kind soul and have left this earth way too soon. Fly High with Angels..Do as you always did, watch over your children and lead them as they learn to live in this burdened time without thier caring and loving Mama.

Lisa - November 03, 2019 at 12:00 AM

JW

“ I remember when we were kids we would play and eat rice pudding together. You were always so nice and full of life. The world wont be the same without you. Sending love to all of my family in these difficult times. Love Josh Wallin

Josh Wallin - November 02, 2019 at 12:00 AM

JE

“ Miss Me, But Let Me Go By Janice M. Fair-Salters
When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want to rest in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me-but let me go
For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
Its all part of the Masters plan
A step on the road to home
When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss me but let me go.

Jessica - November 01, 2019 at 12:00 AM

JE

“ Kelz, This letter is more for me than it is for you. But as always I know that you will be down to listen whole heartedly. You were my best friend for the last 20 years strong. One of the strongest women and one of The realest women that I have ever known. 20 years and we never even had a disagreement. You had such a beautiful soul and caring spirit. You were genuine, true and had a heart , to big for this world. You would give a stranger the shirt off your back or a homeless man your last $3. Your the only one that I could talk to about anything. And Oh to be a fly on the wall for one of our conversations. We shared inside jokes, memories and brutal honesty. We would laugh until we cried and cry (probably from that same brutal honesty) until we laughed. It doesnt matter how long we went without talking, it could have been 6 months, we could always pick right up where we left off. We were pregnant together with both of our second children. We almost spent those whole 9 months almost glued at the hip. I was even there with you in labor and delivery. We held each other down through the good and the bad. Through thick and thin. My Ace Boon Coon. You taught me things and We learned so many life lessons together. One of the important ones was To pray for the best but be prepared for the worse. You told me that at least 100 times. But Im still trying to figure out how I was supposed to prepare for this.... I miss you. You were my roll dawg. My homegirl. My rider. And I am having a difficult time with the reality that I will never see you again on Earth. And You and I both know that I aint gonna make it in to Heaven so thats a no go. (LOL JK) Thank you girl. Thank you for being my Ace. Thank you for being a major part of my life and being my best friend. I want to remind you once again how much it all meant and still means to me to have had a friend like you for 20 years. I may have lost my Ace but I know that many have gained a guardian Angel.

Jessica - November 01, 2019 at 12:00 AM

G(

“ You came into my life when you were 3 years old. I cherish the memories watching you grow up and have always loved as my own daughter. I will surely miss you

Gary Smith (Dad) - October 30, 2019 at 12:00 AM

ES

“ A DIGNITY IN WHITE PEDESTAL ARRANGEMENT was sent on October 30, 2019 Darla, Gary and Family We are so very sorry for your loss. I remember Kelly being so full of love and kindness. Doreen adored her. We will keep you all in our prayers. Rest in Peace Kelly.
Love, Dee Dee and Stephen Hess

Expression of Sympathy - October 30, 2019 at 12:00 AM