

Kenneth Lincoln Delevante Jr.

January 6, 2021

Kenneth Lincoln Delevante, Jr., age 67, entered into the presence of his Savior on December 9, 2020 in Ocala, FL.

Kenny was born in Brooklyn, N.Y. on April 6, 1953 and was raised in Staten Island. After earning his bachelor's degree from St. John's University, he relocated to Fort Pierce, FL, to establish his printing business. After more than three decades of mastering his craft and successfully running Gold Coast Press, Inc. as an owner/operator, he retired to The Villages, FL, where he enjoyed challenging himself in activities such as golf, archery, and pickleball. He also contributed to his local community while playing guitar for his church, assisting with various ministries, dabbling in projects and hobbies, and turning strangers into friends with his quick wit, sense of humor, and genuine care and concern for others. Kenny had a heart for people and constantly sought to ease the burdens of others, diligently brainstormed solutions to problems people shared with him, and tirelessly gave of his time and resources. His interactions left people better than he found them.

He is survived by his beloved wife, Christy, of The Villages; son, Robert K. Delevante of Fort Pierce; daughter, Christina Brown of Fort Pierce; son, Kenneth L. Delevante III of Vero Beach; stepdaughter, Michelle (Harris) Slepian of Ocala; grandchildren, Derrick and Devon Brown and Emily and Robert Delevante; sisters, Alice Delevante of Jensen Beach, Mary Crumrine of Vero Beach, and Geralynn Krueger of Palm City; and five nieces and two nephews. He is preceded in death by his parents, Kenneth L. Delevante, Sr. and Mary E. Delevante; brother, Francis Xavier Delevante; and nephew, Ryan Eslinger.

Two celebrations of life are planned. The first to be held at Truth Church, 6666 US1, Port St. Lucie, FL, on January 16, 2021, at 1:30 PM. Another celebration of life will be held in The Villages at a later date. Arrangements are being handled by Roberts of Ocala.

Kenny will be remembered for his unwavering faith, being a committed family man, his kindness toward friend and stranger, his interest in the arts and history, and his obsession with true NY pizza and homemade brownies. He was the rock of his family and will be forever loved and missed.

Tribute Wall

NC

“ Your passing has left a heartache for so many. I will always remember your Godly ways and the beautiful heart you have. I am so grateful for our friendship and time spent together, Well done! Rest in the arms of our Heavenly Father.

Nancy Carl - January 24, 2021 at 09:53 AM