“ I’m so deeply sorry to hear this news. Kenny was such a huge part of my younger years — we were both redheaded troublemakers who loved to laugh and push the limits a little. I always hoped we’d reconnect in person one day. He will truly be missed, and I’ll hold on to those memories forever. Sending love and prayers to Irene and Lisa during this heartbreaking time.

“ Every year, when Betsy would host our hospice, colleagues reunion, Kenny was our wonderful photographer. It was obvious they were Soul Mates.
