“ I met Krystal in 2013, Krystal was definitely one of a kind , if she was popping out from behind a door to scare the hell out of me, or sitting in silence as we watchrd the sun rise on Oak Island NC all covered in sand because we decided to catch ghost crabs at 3 in the morning . Krystal was taken way before her time, emotions of rage, sorrow, and disbelief are not going to bring Krystal back. Thinking of Krystal , happy , healthy , riding a horse or checking out sone weird creature looking over us all sending a hug and a smile our way is how she would want us to carryon without her. RIP Krystal dont be mad my eyes will be leaking either way. Thank ylu for spending time with me
