

Laura Eva Smith

November 22, 1918 - June 25, 2019

Laura Eva Smith, age 100, went home to be with her Lord on June 25, 2019. Laura was born in Detroit, Michigan on Nov. 22, 1918. She met the love of her life at age 16 and was married to Clarence Smith on Nov. 30, 1935. They were in love all the 74 years of their marriage. Laura lived a long and happy life. She had no regrets.

She was preceded in death by her husband Clarence Smith, her Mother Agnes Allaire, and her father Charlie Vizzini and her sister Jennie Ceballos.

She leaves behind a sister Helen Kelton, age 103, daughter Vicki Carol and two grandsons, Jeffrey Grabman and Timothy Grabman and four great-granddaughters, Myranda, Victoria, Sophia, and Olivia. Laura was known in the Art Culture of Ocala for her award-winning paintings and being the Oldest exhibiting artist in Central Florida. Mostly, Laura will be remembered for her sweetness, inner strength and her wit.

There will be no funeral arrangements. Contributions in her name can be made to Ocala Figurative Artist, MCA or the Visual Arts Society of CFCC.