“ My dear brother, you faced many challenges in your life, in the end it was your battle with cancer. How brave you were. Your courage and love of life and family you showed us was inspirational. You always brought us a smile with your humor and wit. That will always stay with us and is where I will find my comfort.

My dear brother, as kid, you and I, we were the closest playmate, we had lots of fun, you and I sharing toys, go and play tricks on our sibling, and as adult, we were having fun talking politics. Well, we had 72 years plus together, but now I will miss you as long as I live. Have fun up there with the rest of the family that has already left us.
