

Laurie Hagner

December 31, 1969 - September 3, 2013

Obituary of Laurie Hagner Laurie Hagner 53, of Ocala passed away peacefully in her sleep on 9-03-2013. Laurie moved to Ocala from Long Island NY to persue her dream of owning a farm and horses. Laurie loved her family, friends and pets. If our pets also go to heaven, there will be many cats and dogs to greet her. She enjoyed linedancing, travel and especially cruises. Laurie delivered meals to the homebound elderly for a few years. Back in her younger days, she did some modeling. Laurie is survived by her husband Gene Hagner, mother Peggy Mulvey, sister Jean Keffel, niece Sade' Krind, niece Tashi Jill Krind, and father Bill Keffel. There will be a private viewing with the immediate family at Roberts Funeral Home. A service will be planned at a future date.

“ Do not stand at my grave and weep; I am not there, I do not sleep. I am a thousand winds that blow. I am the diamond glints on snow. I am the sunlight on ripened grain. I am the gentle autumn rain. When you awaken in the morning's hush I am the swift uplifting rush Of quiet birds in circled flight. I am the soft stars that shine at night. Do not stand at my grave and cry; I am not there, I did not die.

“ I wanted to share a fond memory of Laurie. Although Sandra and I had no experience horseback riding, Laurie bravely and graciously took us on a lovely trail on Long Island in the late 1990s. We had a great time and it was fun sharing in Laurie's love of horses. Laurie, we love you and we will miss you! Rest in Peace, Michael, Sandra, Patrick, and Mikey Thieblmeont

“ As I was going through Lauries things, I came upon one of her favorite books. She had a page folded and had highlighted in yellow a passage I believe was a message to all who knew her. It read: "Don't mourn her death. Celebrate her life because she influenced so much of what we are today and lives on in our memories". I loved her and always will. Thank you babe for our life together.
Peace
