

Lawrence Christopher "Chris" Simoneaux

December 25, 1951 - January 26, 2025

Lawrence Christopher "Chris" Simoneaux, 73, of Ocala, Florida, passed away on January 26, 2025 at West Marion Hospital in Ocala, Florida.

Chris was born in Donaldsonville, Louisiana, to Lawrence J. Simoneaux and Enola M. Barrient on December 25, 1951. He went to Donaldsonville High School and graduated in 1969. He earned many certificates from Mid Florida Technical School and the Orange County Government. He worked as a department contract supervisor, asphalt maintenance supervisor for Orange and Seminole counties, Florida, for 28 years. He loved to hunt, fish, play golf, and ride motorcycles. He had many awards and honors during his working career. His charity was St. Jude Children's Research Hospital.

Chris is survived by his wife, Frances Simoneaux of Ocala, Florida, and children: Kathryn L. Edmiston and Christina N. Jean. As well as Sister: Elaine Chachati. Sister-in-Law: Sherry Simoneaux, nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends in Louisiana. Also grandsons (3), granddaughters (3), and numerous friends located in Florida. Chris is preceded in death by his mother, Enola Barrient; father, Lawrence J. Simoneaux; brother, Robert Simoneaux and his grandparents, Mr. & Mrs. John Barrient and Mr. & Mrs. Edmond Simoneaux.

It was Chris' wish that there was to be no funeral or memorial service. He will be cremated and his ashes will be put in a bench at Good Shepherd Memorial Gardens in Ocala, Florida.

Chris was a wonderful caring person who throughout his work life, was dedicated and a fair supervisor. He was an amazing father to his two step-daughters who he helped raise and would always go above and beyond for them. He adored his six grandchildren.

He was the best husband and companion a wife could ever want or need. He will always be loved and missed.
