“ Dear Mrs. Karen Slonus and Family, please accept my deepest condolences in the loss of your dear husband and friend. I just wish to share a comforting thought that has helped many in such a sad time as this. It's from Revelation 21:4, and it speaks of a time of no more suffering, pain, sorrow or death - a promise that will soon be fulfilled under God's kingdom arrangement. Along with that will be the grand resurrection hope that Jesus spoke about at John 5:28-29, an act that he demonstrated when on earth with the resurrection of his friend Lazarus. Under a restored paradise earth, obedient mankind will be reunited with loved ones and 'No resident will say; "I am sick"', Isaiah 33:24. May these verse bring you comfort now and in the days to come. Sincerely Mrs. C. Santana.

“ There are few people we encounter in life who you know in your heart to be the truest and kindest real deal. Leo was exactly that. We thought the world of Leo for how down to earth and unassuming and sweet he was. Karen, Vinnie and family, you have been beyond blessed with him in your lives. May you always have him in spirit right next to you.

“ I will always remember Leo as a kind and gentle man with a great sense of humor. Karen and Leo together set a beautiful example of a couple committed to each other, full of life, love and one-liners. Leo will be missed, but his beautiful spirit will live on.

“ I offer my heartfelt condolences to your family. 1 Corinthians 15:25, 26 says "For he [Jesus] must rule as king until God has put all enemies under his feet. And the last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing". At Revelation 21:4 it says regarding Jehovah, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Finally, take courage in the hope of the resurrection promised at Acts 24:15 "And I have hope toward God, which hope these men also look forward to, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."
