“ Sister Gem

May your soul rest in eternal peace. God saw you were getting tired so he called you name. Now you are dancing with the others that went before you.

You will always be in my hear.

Rest in peace.

“ My Dearest Auntie Gem,

It is still tough to comprehend that you are no longer with us. God called you to rest from your labor as He knew you finished your course, and you were becoming tired. It was His will for you, but that does not make your absence any lighter for me. I can still remember my last visit with you in May, how bright you were, and the sound of your beautiful voice when you called my name. My love for you will never fade as you have left a lasting impression on my heart and mind.

You were a champion to the very end, and that was so like you, a woman of strength. So, take your well-deserved rest, my precious Auntie Gem. I will really, really really miss you and the light that always radiated from presence.

Sleep In God's Peace my one-of-a-kind Aunt...

I will love you forever.
