Obituary

Leona V Erazmus, 98, of Ocala, Florida died peacefully on November 9, 2023 at Palm Garden of Ocala Nursing Home. She was born September 12, 1925 in Wilkesbarre, Pennsylvania, daughter of Julia Yozwiak Gorski and Stanley Yozwiak.

Leona was a registered nurse for 35+ years and was happily married to Raymond Erazmus for 62 years before his death in 2016.

Leona did a great deal of volunteer work at the Catholic Churches of which she was a parishioner. After retirement, she and her husband Ray, volunteered at Monroe Regional Hospital. She was a constant presence at her church, doing a variety of volunteer work; she showed compassion toward abuse victims by supporting the Rape Crisis Center; and she gave her time to those in need.

In addition to her parents, she was predeceased by her sister Elizabeth and her husband, Raymond. Leona is survived by her two daughters, Mary Erazmus of Golden, Colorado and Lisa Erazmus of St. Petersburg, Florida.

A private service was held Monday November 20 in St. Petersburg, Florida.

WE RESPECTFULLY REQUEST NO FLOWERS OR CARDS. THANK YOU.
