“ I have only met Leonard a couple of times when he came to visit his daughter, Kathleen Stancik. I live across the street from Kathleen & the Stancik Family. I know Leonard was a great man and father. It is evident in the way that his daughter, Kathleen, carries herself. She is a wonderful friend and neighbor. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. Nikko sends his love too. Kelly Doucet & Family

“ For the good times in Aviano and the 615th TFS. One day there won't be any fighter pilots any more, and the likes of Zembo will be no more. We must cherish those who lived it. Grady

“ He was a very good father and grandfather. He loved to come to our home and go hunting with his son and grandson, who now have fond memories of spending time in nature with him. He was very loved and will be missed daily.

“ What I will always remember about Leonard is the he always had a smile on his face. He was always special to me and we always enjoyed having a beer together when he visited Wisconsin. I always enjoyed his stories about growing up in Wisconsin, "getting flight time in" at end of his military career, and his hunting escapades with Gil.
